2000 Half Street, SW Washington, DC 20024 (202) 479-6710 Fax (202) 479-4505

Member Information

Earth Conservation Corps is a nonprofit youth development and environmental service organization located on the heavily polluted Anacostia River. Each year members receive hands-on life skill, education, career and environmental training, while completing service restoring the Anacostia River and surrounding communities. Our service-learning model provides members with professional skills and develops their expertise in preparation for entry-level careers opportunities and/or higher education. Earth Conservation Corps does not discriminate against any applicant based on race, creed, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, sex, age or disability.

By completing and submitting the following application, you are applying to become an AmeriCorps member. As an AmeriCorps member, you are joining an initiative that engages more than 85,000 individuals per year in community service. In return for their service, AmeriCorps members receive an Education Award that can be used to pay for college tuition or qualified student loans. For more specific information about the position, please see attached Position Description.
